

Contents

Editors' Foreword	9
Author's Foreword	11
Introduction to Jeremiah 1–25	13
Textual Basis of This Commentary	13
Differences between Jer ^{LXX} and Jer ^{MT}	13
Change of Translators in Jer ^{LXX} ?	16
The Communicative Situation in Jer ^{LXX} and Jer ^{MT}	17
The Positioning of the Oracles concerning the Nations in Jer ^{LXX} and Jer ^{MT}	19
The Historical Background of Jeremiah's Prophecy	22
Judah at the End of the Neo-Assyrian Empire	22
The Babylonian Victory at Carchemish, 605 BCE	23
Nebuchadrezzar's War against Jerusalem	25
Judah under Babylonian Rule	29
Method of This Commentary	33
The Significance of Multiple Voices in the Interpretation	33
On Synchronic Analysis	40
On Diachronic Analysis	44
Jeremiah 1:1–19: The Prophet Jeremiah and His Mission	54
Synchronic Analysis	56
Diachronic Analysis	62
Synthesis	65
Jeremiah 2:1–4:2: The Significance for Judah of Israel's Defection	67
Jeremiah 2:1–3:5: How the Break with God Happened	68
Synchronic Analysis	76
Diachronic Analysis	89
Jeremiah 3:6–4:2: How the Breach May Be Healed	95
Synchronic Analysis	100
Diachronic Analysis	103
Synthesis	110
Jeremiah 4:3–6:30: The Announcement of the Enemy from the North ..	113
Act One: Jeremiah 4:3–31: The Enemy Sets Out	115
Synchronic Analysis	119
Diachronic Analysis	123
Synthesis	128
Act Two: Jeremiah 5:1–31: Reasons for the Enemy Threat	130
Synchronic Analysis	135
Diachronic Analysis	139
Synthesis	145

Act Three: Jeremiah 6:1–30: The Enemy before Jerusalem	146
Synchronic Analysis	151
Diachronic Analysis	156
Synthesis	160
Jeremiah 7:1–8:3: Critique of the Temple and of Other Cults	162
Synchronic Analysis	168
Diachronic Analysis	181
Synthesis	186
Jeremiah 8:4–10:25: Reasons for and Lament over the End	189
Act Four: Jeremiah 8:4–9:2: People’s Lament and God’s Lament	190
Synchronic Analysis	194
Diachronic Analysis	198
Synthesis	201
Act Five: Jeremiah 9:3–20: A Ruined Relationship to God	202
Synchronic Analysis	206
Diachronic Analysis	209
Synthesis	211
Act Six: Jeremiah 9:21–10:25: YHWH as the Only Powerful God	213
Synchronic Analysis	219
Diachronic Analysis	224
Synthesis	227
Jeremiah 11:1–13:27: Reflections on Jerusalem’s End	230
Act Seven: Jeremiah 11:1–17: God’s Covenant Obligation	231
Synchronic Analysis	234
Diachronic Analysis	238
Synthesis	241
Jeremiah 11:18–12:6: Jeremiah’s First Lament Discourse	242
Synchronic Analysis	244
Diachronic Analysis	247
Synthesis	248
Act Eight: Jeremiah 12:7–17: The Ravaging of the Land	249
Synchronic Analysis	251
Diachronic Analysis	253
Synthesis	255
Jeremiah 13:1–11: The Sign Act with the Ruined Loincloth	256
Synchronic Analysis	257
Diachronic Analysis	262
Synthesis	263
Jeremiah 13:12–27: A Collection of Other Sayings	264
Synchronic Analysis	267
Diachronic Analysis	274
Synthesis	277

Jeremiah 14:1–17:27: Discourses on Suffering and Catastrophe	279
Act Nine: Jeremiah 14:1–15:4: Rejected Complaints	279
Synchronic Analysis	284
Diachronic Analysis	289
Synthesis	292
Jeremiah 15:5–21: God’s Lament over Jerusalem and Jeremiah’s Second Lament Discourse	294
Synchronic Analysis	298
Diachronic Analysis	302
Synthesis	304
Jeremiah 16:1–17:4: Jeremiah’s Life as Symbol of the Catastrophe	305
Synchronic Analysis	310
Diachronic Analysis	316
Synthesis	319
Jeremiah 17:5–18: Jeremiah’s Third Lament Discourse	320
Synchronic Analysis	322
Diachronic Analysis	325
Synthesis	326
Jeremiah 17:19–27: The Sabbath Speech as Conditional Promise of Salvation	327
Synchronic Analysis	329
Diachronic Analysis	331
Synthesis	332
 Jeremiah 18:1–20:18: Jeremiah Embodies the Fall	 334
Jeremiah 18:1–17: Jeremiah’s Visit to the Potter’s House	335
Synchronic Analysis	337
Diachronic Analysis	340
Synthesis	341
Jeremiah 18:18–23: Jeremiah’s Fourth Lament Discourse	342
Synchronic Analysis	343
Diachronic Analysis	345
Synthesis	346
Jeremiah 19:1–13: The Broken Vessel as Symbol of the Fall	346
Synchronic Analysis	348
Diachronic Analysis	350
Synthesis	352
Jeremiah 19:14–20:18: Jeremiah’s Fifth Lament Discourse	353
Synchronic Analysis	356
Diachronic Analysis	360
Synthesis	362
 Jeremiah 21:1–24:10: Words against Judah’s Kings and Leaders	 364
Jeremiah 21:1–10: Jerusalem’s End as YHWH’s Work	364
Synchronic Analysis	366
Diachronic Analysis	368
Synthesis	370

Jeremiah 21:11–22:9: Sayings against the Royal House	372
Synchronic Analysis	374
Diachronic Analysis	377
Synthesis	379
Jeremiah 22:10–23:8: Sayings about Individual Kings	380
Synchronic Analysis	385
Diachronic Analysis	390
Synthesis	395
Jeremiah 23:9–40: Sayings about the Prophets	396
Synchronic Analysis	401
Diachronic Analysis	405
Synthesis	409
Jeremiah 24:1–10: The Vision of the Good and Bad Figs	410
Synchronic Analysis	411
Diachronic Analysis	413
Synthesis	416
Jeremiah 25:1–38: Jeremiah’s Message and YHWH’s Judgment on the Nations	418
Jeremiah 25:1–14: A Summary of YHWH’s and Jeremiah’s Work	418
Synchronic Analysis	421
Diachronic Analysis	425
Synthesis	429
Jeremiah 25:15–38: The Cup of Wrath for Judah and the Nations	430
Synchronic Analysis	433
Diachronic Analysis	439
Synthesis	442
Abbreviations	445
Bibliography	446
Sources and Reference Works	446
Commentaries on Jeremiah	447
Secondary Literature	448
Indexes	458
Index of Hebrew Words	458
Index of Key Terms	459
Index of Biblical Citations	461
Old Testament	461
New Testament	463
Index of Other Ancient Literature	463
Plan of volumes	464